Rome, Sept. 5. N. S.

THE Cardinal de Giudice, who acts as Miniſter from the Crown of Spain at this Court, had Audience of the Pope laſt week, whom he acquainted with the Choice the King of Spain has made, of the Cardinal of Cordua to fill the Place of Great Inquiſitor of that Kingdom; which the Pope has confirmed, and has ordered his Bulls to be diſpatched accordingly. The Duke of Modena's Reſident at this Court had Audience likewiſe of the Pope, to whom he delivered a Letter from the Duke his Maſter, notifying the Death of the Dutcheſs-Dowager of Modena. The Differences between the Emperor and this Court are not yet adjuſted; And the Pope ſtill refuſes to admit Count Martiwitz, the Imperial Ambaſſador, to Audience; It's ſaid, his Excellency will go in few days to Naples, to confer with the Vice-Roy of that Kingdom.

Milan, Sept. 9. On the 31ſt of the laſt Month Signior Archinto, Prefect of the Cathedral Church of this City, took Poſſeſſion of the ſaid Church in the Name of Signior Archinto our new Arch-Biſhop, who ſtill continues with the Character of the Pope's Nuncio at the Court of Spain. The Prince of Vaudemont, our Governor, having received Advice that the Inhabitants of Caſtiglione are again in Arms againſt their Prince, has ſent ſome Troops to his Aſſiſtance under the Command of Signior Borezana.

Venice, Septemb. 11. Signior Soranzo, Ambaſſador from this Republick to the Port, embarked this day on the Man of War that is to carry him to Conſtantinople. A conſiderable Sum of Money was ſent this week to Dalmatia, to pay the Venetian Forces in thoſe Parts. The Senate has been ſeveral times aſſembled, to conſider of an Expedient for accommodating the Differences between the Emperor and this State about the County of Litta, and Expreſſes are frequently ſent to the Venetian Ambaſſador at Vienna with the Senates Orders touching this Matter. Our laſt Advices from Dalmatia ſay, the Venetian and Turkiſh Commiſſioners for ſettling the Limits continue their Conferences with good Succeſs; That General Mocenigo was ſtill at Sebenico, and that the new Levies are continued in that Province for recruiting the Forces under his Command. A Convoy is preparing here to carry freſh Supplies of Proviſions and Ammunition to the Forces of this State in the Morea, which, according to our laſt Advices from thence, were lately reviewed by the General Officers, and found in a very good Condition.

Warſaw, Sept. 10. The Conferences between the Chief Miniſters of this Court and the Reſident of Brandenburgh, for accommodating the Affair of Elbing, are continued, and it being agreed, that the Elector of Brandenburgh ſhall reſtore that City to the Polanders, who on their ſide are to deliver up ſome other Place to the Elector, to continue in his Electoral Highneſs's hands till they have given him Satisfaction as to his Demands from this Crown; ſeveral Places have been propoſed for this purpoſe, but none is yet fixed upon. A Murza or Captain of the Tartars arrived here this week with ſeveral Gentlemen of Poland that were taken Priſoners during the late War, and have been Ranſomed purſuant to the Treaty of Carlowitz. A conſiderable Sum of Money was ſent this week to the Sieur Chelmsky, Envoy Extraordinary from this Crown to the Port. Major-General Carlowitz has begun his Journey to Moſcow, where he is to reſide as Envoy Extraordinary from Poland; he has a Commiſſion to treat with the Miniſters at that Court, in order to accommodate ſome Differences between the Czar and the King of Poland about the Limits of their reſpective Dominions in Ukrania. General Fleming has married a Daughter of the late Prince Sapieha, who was General of the Artillery, and Brother to the preſent Great General of Lithuania, and is by this Marriage allied to the Three Chief Families of Poland and Lithuania, Radzivil, Lubomirsky, and Sapieha. The Turks have not yet evacuated Camiec; and in the mean time the Forces of this Crown continue encamped on the Borders of Ruſland.

Copenhagen, Septemb. 19. The Duke of Wirtemberg arrived here the 15th Inſtant from Holland, being accompanied by Prince Charles of Wirtemberg his Brother; He waited the next day upon the King of Denmark, by whom he was very well received, and is continued in the Chief Command of all his Forces. The King intends in the beginning of the next Month to take a Journey to Holſtein; The fitting out of ſeveral Men of War, and the new Levies in theſe Parts, are continued with great Diligence.

Vienna, Sept. 12. The Imperial Court goes into Mourning next Sunday for the Death of the Queen of Portugal. An Envoy is arrived here from the Duke of Lorrain, to notifie the Birth of his Son. Count Otting will be going from hence in few days on his Embaſſy to the Port. Our laſt Letters from Hungary give an Account, that the Grand Signior's Ambaſſador to this Court is daily expected at Belgrade; That the Turks are making ſeveral Alterations in the Fortifications of that Place, which they design to make as strong as they can; And that the Imperialists on their side continue to work with great Application on their new Fortifications at Arat, Esseck, and other Frontier Places. They write from Slavonia, that the Imperial and Turkish Commissioners for settling the Limits between the two Empires, had passed through that Province, going to settle the Boundaries of Transilvania.

that

Tomingen, Septemb. 21. The Baron of Kaungflein, who commands the Duke of Holstein's Forces, arrived here yesterday, and gave Orders for filling our Magazines with Provisions, and for several other Things to be done, in order to put this Place into a good Posture of Defence; And this day he returned to Frederickstad, to view the new Forts that are building in those Parts by the Duke of Holstein's Orders, which are in great forwardness; And there being Advice, that several Companies of Danish Dragoons were in Motion in the Neighbourhood of Husum; The Troops employed in these Works are making Preparations to defend themselves, in case the Danes do attack them.

Dieren, Sept. 25. The King, with the Duke of Cell and the whole Court, came to this Place last Tuesday from Loo, and intend to return thither to morrow. The Duke will take his Leave of His Majesty the middle of the next week, in order to return to Germany; After which His Majesty will be going in few days for England; and the Yachts and Convoy are sent for, in order to attend His Majesty in his Passage.

Hague, Sept. 25. The States of Holland and Westfriseland will adjourn to morrow till the 6th of the next Month; And the Admiralties are directed to send their Deputies hither against that time. The Prince of Parma, who came hither some days ago from France, is gone from hence to Germany.

Paris, October 3. N. S. The Marquis de Pompone, Minister of State, died here on the 27th of the last Month of an Apoplexy, in the 81st Year of his Age; The King, in Consideration of his Services, has given a Pension of 12000 Livers to Madame de Pompone his Widow. The Sieur Acunha, Envoy Extraordinary of Portugal, had Audience of the King at Fontainbleau on the 27th past, and delivered a Letter from the King of Portugal his Master, notifying the Death of the Queen of Portugal; After which, the Envoy had Audience in like manner of the Dauphin, the Duke and Dutchess of Burgundy, and the rest of the Royal Family; And on the 28th, the Court went into Mourning on this occasion. The Marquis de Lenoncour, Envoy Extraordinary from the Duke of Lorrain, had his Audiences of Leave on the 29th past at Fontainbleau, and intends to return home in few days. The Duke and Dutchess of Orleans are gone from Fontainbleau to their House at Montargis, and the Dauphin and the Duke de Chartres intend likewise to go and pass some days there. The Ratifications of the Treaty for settling the Tariffe between this Crown and the States-General are not yet exchanged, by reason of some Difficulties that still continue in this Matter.

Deale, September 26. Yesterday Sir Cloudesly Shovell, Admiral of the Blue, sailed out of the Downes with the Yachts and Men of War under his Command to attend His Majesty in his Return from Holland.

Westminster, September 27. The Right Reverend Father in God Dr. William Talbot, Lord Bishop of Oxford, was Consecrated last Sunday by his Grace the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, assisted by the Bishops of London, Rochester, and Norwich, in his Grace's Chapel at Lambeth, with the usual Solemnity.
